

Eli Lilly VSF Program

I have attached a flyer for your students to sign up for our fellow-led webinar that is taking place on September 30th at 7pm EST. This webinar will give students a chance to learn more about next year's positions, what the fellow's current roles entail, and ask any other questions regarding the application process, living in Indianapolis and so much more.

So you are aware, our application portal for next year is officially open and will close on October 13th. Please let me know if you need any additional information. Also, have the students check out <https://careers.lilly.com/visiting-scientist> where we have a recorded video giving an overview of the program as well as our brochure.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions or concerns.

Warm regards,
Folu
