

Baylor Scott & White Health

Please forward the following message regarding our post-graduate fellowship opportunity to interested students at your institution. This program is offered annually, so the information in this email may be of interest to P1/P2/P3 students in addition to the P4 students eligible for this recruitment cycle.

Baylor Scott & White Health (BSWH), the largest not-for-profit healthcare system in Texas and one of the largest in the United States, is seeking motivated individuals to apply for a two-year Fellowship in Health Economics & Outcomes Research (HEOR). BSWH is proud to offer this program, in collaboration with the University of Texas at Austin, for the 2022-2024 cycle. This is an excellent opportunity for student pharmacists with an interest in a career in managed care, pharmaceutical industry, consulting, and academia.

Interested students can learn more by visiting our website
